1. The end of September 1951, Jusuf Mudadalam of the CC Partai Komunis Indonesia (PKI) in Djakarta arrived in Medan accompanied by two other members of this committee and was subsequently joined by a third.¹ Prior to 30 October these three members returned to Java; Mudadalam is believed to be still (16 November) in Medan.
2. In Medan, Mudadalam sometimes stays at a house occupied by the following:
 - Mus Supardi Head of the Post dan Telegrap Office, Medan
 - Kombang Harahap² Information Section of the RI Labor Department in Medan
 - Hartoyo Information Section of RI Labor Department in Medan

A trading company has offices in this house.
3. Harahap and Hartoyo were actively involved in the Madiun revolt, at which time they belonged to a small group of which Sidartojo was a member. They still have connections with Sidartojo.
4. Sjarifuddin Nagry, President-Director of NV Inacco, an import-export company, is another contact of Mudadalam's in Medan. In July 1951, Nagry attempted to smuggle a ton of Escort cigarettes by ship from Djakarta to Belawan. The cargo was discovered by the Customs at Belawan and confiscated, but no action has been taken by the Government in this matter. Nagry is well-acquainted with Jusuf Adjitorop.
